MASON COUNTY FAMILY CONNECTED LONG WITH COLLEGE

Barbour Family of This County Has Been Connected With Old Centre
College For One Hundred Years.

Hon. John W. Yerkes, Toastmaster at the Alumni Banquet at Danville, spoke of the remarkable hold that little Centre had kept for a century upon the families of its founders scattered all over the country. He instanced the Barbour family. Major James Barbour one of the founders (1919) was Treasurer of the College for fifteen years and Trustee until 1843. His son, James succeeded him in the Board and his son, Rev. John Barbour succeeded him. These three practically filled out the century as trustees. This is said to be an entirely unique case in the annals of American colleges. Dr. Barbour is also a descendant of Willis Green, first clerk of Lincoln county. He was the father of Dr. Lewis Warner Green, the first graduate and one of the most distinguished and eloquent Presidents of the College, whose daughter, Mrs. M. T. Scott and Mrs. Vice President Stevenson were both President-Generals of the Daughters of the American Revolution. Thomas M. Green and Dr. W. G. Craig of Chicago were from the same ancestor. Of this line there are three members of the present Board. Drs. John and Philip F. Barbour and Lewis Humphrey, editor Louisville Post, Dr. Holden, Ex-President of Wooster College stated in Louisville last spring that Centre College's record was absolutely the first among American colleges in the number of men reaching distinction.

The old college is receiving its halcyon days under the splendid presidency of Dr. Ganfield, who is as much beloved as he is admired, and who bids fair to raise the half million educational fund the campaign for which is now on as the great centennial feature.

PARIS REVIVAL CONTINUES WITH GREAT INTEREST

In a letter to a friend Dr. B. B. Bailey, pastor of the Maysville Baptist church, says that the revival meeting in which he is assisting at Paris is continuing with great interest. He will remain in Paris over Sunday and Dr. E. H. Hatcher, editor of the Baptist World, will preach here. The Paris revival closes Sunday evening and Dr. Bailey will return to Maysville on Monday morning.

BAD ACCIDENT ON LIMESTONE BRIDGE

Roy Porter Has Narrow Escape From
Plunging Into Limestone Creek
On Friday Evening When He Lost Control of Machine.

One of the most narrow escapes in this section for some time was that of Friday evening when Mr. Roy Porter's automobile got from under his control when about half way across Limestone bridge and headed for the creek below catching on the walk way and hanging with front wheels over the edge of the bridge.

Mr. Porter was moving East over the bridge and Mr. Elmer Thompson, of the Maysville Buick Company was driving West over the bridge. They met about half way across the bridge and Mr. Porter's left front wheel struck Mr. Thompson's fender only slightly, threw the automobile out of Mr. Porter's control and it turned around the back of the Thompson machine and headed between the iron girders of the bridge and across the Northern walkway. An entire section of the railing along the walkway was torn out and pushed over the edge fully three or four feet. The engine on the Porter machine hung on the walkway and this probably saved Mr. Porter his life and the machine.

MASON COUNTY NEWS IS LOOKING UP

The Mason County News published at Dover, comes to us this week all home print and filled with good live matter. Under the guidance of Editor Herbert Klinker this paper is looking up considerably and the people of the Dover section should lend him hearty co-operation and he has already demonstrated his ability to give them a first class newspaper.

MICKEY COMING ON NEXT FRIDAY

The big feature picture "Mickey" will be shown at the Washington Theater on next Friday evening and will probably be kept for the Gem on Saturday. This is recognized as one of the best feature films on the road at this time and a large audience is expected.

BAND CONCERT SATURDAY NIGHT

The second weekly concert of the Maysville Boys' Band will be given in the city band stand in Market street Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock. The band will play a couple of new pieces of music which they have learned during this week and a large crowd is expected on the streets.

OUR FLAG JUNE 14 1777-1919

This is Flag Day. Are the Stars and Stripes floating from your house as evidence of the pride you feel in the part played by our flag in the World's War? It is not too late yet to hang it there where every passerby may salute it, and in the busy turmoil of the day let Memory recall what it has meant to a sorrowing world; to those who have seen it for the first time; to those who have been inspired by it to fresh courage to fight on and win; to those foreign born Americans bearing strange names and speaking broken English, who most fully appreciated its true significance following it, fighting for it, even against their own blood; to those who followed it and never came back, to those who came back maimed and crippled for the rest of their days; to those enduring hardships, privations and physical anguish without complaint for the sake of it. It has been our flag since the 14th of June, 1777. Now it is the World's Flag of hope for the future.

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION HAS FINE EVENING AT SCHOOL

Annual Banquet of the Maysville High School Alumni Association Held on Friday Evening Proves Great Event.

The various events of Commencement Week came to a close Friday evening with the big Alumni Banquet, which proved one of the most delightful events of the entire season. The banquet was a real feast and the various toasts were quite interesting.

Superintendent Caplinger as toastmaster proved his ability in such an important post and the speakers were all very interesting. Mr. Ben H. Greenlee, Miss Scottie Stevenson and Major Charles McClanahan, all gave quite interesting talks.

Fred Bassett, traveling salesman, was present and put the finishing touches on the affair by telling a number of his immensely interesting after dinner stories which brought hearty laughs from all.

School teachers living in other cities begin today leaving for their homes and the vacation period which began Friday at noon will last until the first of September. Superintendent Caplinger expects to take some University work during the holidays and will, as usual, spend much time in the country in the interest of bringing out-of-town students to the Maysville schools.

PRECAUTIONS AGAINST SMALL- POX IN OUTSKIRTS TAKEN

County Health Officer Rice and Miss Anna Casey, County Health Nurse, have visited Dover and Germantown and other bordering communities between Mason and Bracken county to take every possible precaution to prevent the spread of smallpox from the Augusta neighborhood to Mason county. The situation at Augusta is now clearing and the health authorities feel there is no danger of its spread here.

CHAPTER MEETING

Maysville Chapter No. 9 R. A. M., will hold its regular monthly meeting Monday evening at the Masonic Temple at 7:30. Fourteen candidates for first three degrees. Every companion is urged to be present. Visitors welcome. C. E. DIETRICH, H. P. C. P. Rasp, Secretary.

MANY STILL VISITING WRECKED AIRPLANE

Many Maysville people are still visiting the Anderson farm at the top of the Maysville hill to see the wrecked airplane which burned on Thursday afternoon. Officers are guarding the plane to prevent the visitors from tearing it to pieces to carry away souvenirs.

ERECTING NEW POLES

The Maysville Gas Company's force of men is now engaged in erecting new electric light poles through the East end of the city. During the past several months they have been erecting new poles over the city.

MRS. ROSENHAM IS SAVED FROM DROWN- ING BY TWO MEN

Well Known Local Woman While Suffering From Nervous Attack Jumps Into Ohio River But Is Rescued.

Mrs. Lena Rosenham, widow of the late Colonel C. L. Rosenham, was saved from drowning at the foot of Short street Saturday morning at about 9:30 o'clock by Thomas Brewer and Elmer Workman, two young men who were near the Gable Brothers' coal float when Mrs. Rosenham stepped off the float into the Ohio river.

For some time Mrs. Rosenham has suffered from a very severe form of nervousness. She has been treated by many physicians in various parts of the country but has been able to get little relief. It was in a very high nervous state that she left her rooms at the Hill House Saturday morning and went to the river bank. She walked down the bank until she reached the Gable coal float at the foot of Short street and those who saw her say that she walked onto the float very carefully and out to the edge of the float where she walked into the river as if stepping into a boat.

Several men happened to be in that section and Tom Brewer and Elmer Workman jumped into the river with their clothes on and soon brought her safely to shore. She was removed to the home of her son, Dr. A. R. Quigley in East Second street where she was reported as being in a very nervous state.

RICHARDSON WINS PLUM

Washington, June 14.—W. Vernon Richardson, of Danville, Ky., who came to Washington to be secretary to Senator Ollie M. James, and who has served in a similar capacity to Senators Martin and A. O. Stanley, has been appointed to a clerical position in the office of the collector of internal revenue at Danville.

DR. AKERS WILL SPEAK AT HILLDALE

Another treat is in store for Hilldale Sunday School. Dr. W. W. Akers, former pastor of the Central Presbyterian church here, now of Fayetteville, Tenn., will deliver an address at 3:30 p. m. and Miss Huron will sing a solo. All are invited.

Mrs. H. G. Speth of Ft. Thomas, is the pleasant guest of Mrs. H. L. Walsh and family, of Front street.

FLEMING COUNTY MERCHANT FOUND DEAD SATURDAY

Mr. Joseph M. Plummer, Prominent Merchant of Goddard, Fleming County, Drops Dead at Early Hour Saturday Morning.

Mr. Joseph Plummer, one of the oldest and highest respected citizens of Fleming county, was found dead near the wood shed at his home in the village of Goddard at an early hour Saturday morning.

Mr. Plummer had arisen as usual and had probably gone to the wood shed to cut some wood as was his usual custom, when he fell over. When he was found by relatives life had gone. Mr. Plummer conducted a general store at Goddard for many years and was well known in Maysville where he had transacted much business.

Miss Hattie Staggs, who makes her home with Mr. and Mrs. George Royse, of East Second street, was a granddaughter and left this afternoon for her grandfather's home to be present at the funeral.

LIGHT VOTE CAST IN ROADS ELECTION

Reports from all of the city precincts and many in the county are to the effect that the vote in the good roads twenty-cent tax election is very light. In one city ward where there were several more than 200 voters only 75 votes had been cast at 3 o'clock. In the city it is thought the tax will have a majority but it is a question as to whether or not it will be large enough to overcome the county vote.

BARACA CLASS GROWS

Interest in the First Baptist Church Baraca Class increases. The goal number 1600 decreases rapidly, the twenty companies attempting to make record attendance. The teacher, C. S. Kirk, handled last Sunday's lesson "Obedience" in a very pleasing and skillful manner, showing that as obedience to the laws of nature or physical laws as well as to man-made laws is necessary so also is obedience to the laws of God essential, if man would have life. Come, see, hear Sunday 9:45 a. m.

GOOD CROWD IN CITY ON SATURDAY AFTERNOON

There was a good crowd of country people in Maysville on Saturday afternoon and in every crowd the subject of discussion was the twenty-cent road tax. Farmers reported that there was not a very heavy vote being cast in the county precincts.

ABERDEEN MAN, BECOMING PRIEST, SAYS FIRST MASS

Rev. Louis O'Harron, Native of Aberdeen, Raised to the Office of Priest In the Catholic Church, Says First Mass Here Sunday.

Sunday is a very eventful day at St. Patrick's church for Rev. Father Louis O'Harron, who was raised to the priesthood at St. Mary's Cathedral, Covington, this morning will say his first mass and it is expected there will be an unusually large audience present. Father O'Harron was a member of St. Patrick's and this is the first time in the history of the church that one of its own sons said his first mass as priest within its walls.

Father O'Harron was educated at St. Meinard's Seminary, Ind., and at Mount St. Mary's Seminary, Cincinnati. On Thursday of this week at a beautiful ceremony he was raised to the rank of sub-deacon and on Friday he was made a deacon with Bishop Brossart officiating. At seven o'clock Saturday morning the beautiful and impressive ceremonies elevating him to the high rank of priest were held.

Plans have been made for a very impressive ceremony Sunday morning. There will be a large procession of children and Rev. Father P. M. Jones, pastor of St. Patrick's will officiate at the ceremonies. Dr. John LaMott, Rev. Father Kinsel and Rev. McVey, all of the faculty of St. Mary's Seminary, are here and will assist in the ceremony Sunday morning.

Father O'Harron is the son of Mrs. John O'Harron, of Aberdeen. He is a most splendid young man, highly cultured and talented and one of whom the people of this community are indeed proud.

FARMERS FEAR $600,000 LOSS FROM WHEAT SMUT

Lexington, Ky., June 14.—Approximately $600,000 will be lost to the farmers of Kentucky this year because of the prevalence of wheat smut. It was stated today by Frank T. McFarland, assistant professor of botany in the University of Kentucky, who is assisting in conducting a survey of the State.

Four representatives from the Department of Agriculture are making a survey in the western part of the State. As smut as it has been determined where the smut is the most prevalent a series of lectures and demonstrations as to preventing will be given.

OUR POLICY

To support such measures as are unquestionably for the good of Mason County as an entire community, rather than such propositions as are in favor of the individual interest, or of one section as against another. And likewise to earnestly and consistently oppose all things that are not for the good of the County as a whole.

THE LOVE OF THE SOIL

Herbert Quick, in one of the most valuable of recent agricultural discussions, says that the training of the soldier to endure hardship and enjoy hard work, will be one of the best foundations on which to build a new farming class.

There is a deeper foundation than that, and on this rock will be founded most rural achievement.

Unless the farmer love the soil; love the smell of it, love to work with growing things; unless he somehow gets in tune with the job of creating pastures where weeds were, and of bringing fruit buds where leaf buds once sprouted, he will not really succeed.

Whether consciously or not the successful farmer is one to whom nature is an ally, instead of an enemy to be rudely conquered.

If you hate a weed because it is starving a flower you have sufficient incentive to keep your garden clean.

If you revel in making your crops leap ahead, not for the harvest but for the thrill of seeing life expand under your touch, you will find no complaint at any necessary labor that insures success.

If you love your stock, care for it as you would care for the welfare of any other helpless thing left in your charge, your stock will prosper.

Above all, whether conscious of it or not, the farmer must have the creative master's instinct, and love of growing things if he succeeds; and you will find that the successful farmers have this, and that they are scarcely conscious of incidental hardships, because their heart is in their work.

The mechanical minded farmer, who grows crops by rote, and feels stock by chart, and tends spring lambs by proxy, will not be a success, no matter what his bank account may show, or his acres produce.

The labor of love is never laborious.

The self-made business man who is a success seldom retires until death intervenes.

This nation is 143 years old, and has had five war games—with a batting average of 1,000.

However scarce money may be, there seems always plenty to spend.

SALVATION ARMY NEEDS

Annual Budget Shows Reasons for $13,000,000 Drive

Vast Activities Conducted by 1,000 Corps in United States—Future Plans.

New York.—(Special)—The annual budget of the Salvation Army, containing a detailed and comprehensive statement of the cost of maintaining its varied activities throughout the United States, has been issued from National Headquarters, 122 West Fourteenth street. The statistics show why it is necessary for the Salvation Army to go before the American people in the week of May 19 to 26 and ask them to contribute $13,000,000 to its Home Service Fund.

There are 939 corps and outposts of the Salvation Army in the United States. The cost of maintaining these is $2,685,000. The maximum income which these corps may expect from collections in meetings, contributions of members and other outside contributions is $715,000, making the net total cost of supporting the corps $1,970,000.

The cost of maintaining divisional and provincial headquarters, which supervise the work of the local corps, will be, according to the budget, $530,000.

Besides the work of supervising the local headquarters, the provincial and divisional headquarters are in charge of several of the Salvation Army's largest activities, including the operation of fresh air camps for children, relief and employment bureaus and the provincial bands.

Under the heading of "national and territorial obligations" the Salvation Army includes the expenses of maintaining what are among its best known institutions, those which may be grouped under the general name of "social work." For this purpose the Army wants $1,270,000.

The pension fund budget is $400,000. The Salvation Army has determined on the erection of many new buildings for social work in the future. The building program will require expenditures of $1,875,000.

The remainder of the amount sought for the Home Service Fund is for corps, divisional and provincial buildings and a small contingent fund.

Details of the Salvation Army's activities in the United States for the last year show how remarkable is the scope of the Army's endeavors and what vast numbers of people it serves. For instance, the Army maintains seventy-five hotels for men and women. Last year 1,650,528 persons found sleeping accommodations in these. Beds were supplied for 127,880 children in the Army's four children's homes in the same period, while 48,519 children were sheltered in the slum nurseries. In the industrial houses beds were supplied for 1,742,815. In the rescue homes and maternity hospitals 1,809 girls went under the care of the Army last year.

The Army has 2,918 officers and cadets in the United States. Last year they preached to over 24,000,000 persons.

MANY NOW WORKING AT DAM

The Ohio is now down to a very good stage where work on Dam 33 just east of the city can proceed uninterrupted and quite a number of men are given employment there. It is expected that in a short time another large force will be put to work. The contractors this year are paying good salaries.

BURNS, CUTS, BRUISES

There is no better remedy for burns cuts and bruises than the antiseptic and healing ointment called San Cura. Every person ought to have a jar on hand; it is the first and best aid to the injured case of accident, and is the ideal remedy for so many other distressing and painful ailments besides.

For example, it is guaranteed by J. Jas. Wood & Son to relieve itching, bleeding and protruding piles, eczema, tetters, ulcers, salt rheum, boils, carbuncles and pimples, or money back.

In case of old running sores, no matter how long standing, a few poultices of San Cura Ointment will draw out the poison, and leave them in such a thoroughly aseptic condition that they will heal promptly.

We advise every reader to get a jar of San Cura Ointment today, and keep it ready for an accident or emergency that may happen. 30c, 60c and $1.20 a jar at J. Jas. Wood & Son on the money back plan.

San Cura Soap is delightful for shampooing, because it is full of antiseptic properties that banish the germs of dandruff and other impurities from the scalp. It removes pimples and blackheads, too. 25 cents a cake at J. Jas. Wood & Son.

If your druggist does not have one send to Thompson Medical Co., Titusville, Pa.

THE $13,000,000 SALVATION ARMY POSTER

"A man may be down, but he's never out," the Salvation Army slogan, furnished the theme for the official Home Service Fund Campaign poster designed by Frederick Duncan, the noted artist. From this he has evolved a striking artistic creation, typifying the hand of the Salvation Army reaching out to rescue those who are enshrouded in the clouds of poverty and vice. A Salvation Army lass is the principal figure, and the scarlet lining of her cloak thrown back as she enfolds those who are calling out to her in distress, furnishes the poster with its one spot of brilliant color. The background is of blacks, grays and greens, indicative of the storm clouds of misery and want.

NATIVE OF MASON COUNTY MOURNED BY INDIANAPOLIS

Miss Mary A. Dye Regarded as One of the Most Prominent Citizens of Indiana's Capital.

The Indianapolis Star has the following to say editorially about Miss Mary A. Dye, native Mason countian, who recently died in Indianapolis:

A life spent in faithful service to the community, no matter in how limited a field, deserves a recognition not always accorded by a heedless public. Miss Dye would perhaps have said deprecatingly that she was not known to the general public, which was in a sense true, for her work for nearly a quarter of a century in the Public Library was in a special line in which brought her in direct touch with comparatively a narrow circle; yet she would probably have been greatly surprised had she known how familiar her name was in the homes of Indianapolis.

To her during her years of service came for help and information art students, young and old—children, teachers, club women, architects and followers of many mechanical arts, and if assistance could be given to them from her amazing fund of facts or from the volumes on her shelves, they received it. Art knowledge, are interest and skill have progressed rapidly in Indianapolis within twenty-five years and to what measure Miss Dye's devoted efforts contributed to this progress no one can say, but was a common thing to hear expressions of thankfulness for her aid, and the testimony of those who have missed her from her familiar place proves that she was an inspiration and an influence to higher effort where she doubtless little dreamed of it.

Miss Dye sought no public favor. She was content to do her work in a quiet way without self-assertion, but in doing this she advanced esthetic interests and so achieved a success that she may never have realized. She could not have done this perhaps had she limited her interest to art. But she had the "book sense," a love of books for their own sake and an appreciation of general literature—a gift not common even among librarians, and that made her much more than a mere technical guide in her special field. She builded better than she knew and in after years her name will be gratefully remembered by those whom she served so well. Cultured women of her class are a great influence in library work and more of them are needed there.

WILSON ENDORSES SALVATION ARMY.

President Wilson, burdened as he is, found time to cable his endorsement of the Salvation Army Home Service Fund Campaign, for Kentucky, outside of Louisville and Jefferson county, which will be conducted during the week of June 23-30. The telegram:

I am very much interested to know that the Salvation Army is about to enter into a campaign for a sustaining fund. I feel that the Salvation Army needs no commendation from me. The love and gratitude it has elicited from the troops is a sufficient evidence of the work it has done, and I feel that I should not so much commend as to congratulate it. Cordially and sincerely yours, WOODROW WILSON.

"A SPLENDID TONIC"

Hixson, Tenn.—"About 10 years ago I was..." says Mrs. J. B. Gadd, of this place. "I suffered with a pain in my left side, could not sleep at night with this pain, always in the left side..."

My doctor told me to use Cardui. I took one bottle, which helped me and after my baby came, I was stronger and better, but the pain was still there.

I at first let it go, but began to get weak and in a run-down condition so I decided to try some more Cardui which I did.

This last Cardui which I took made me much better, in fact, cured me. I have been a number of years, still I have no return of this trouble.

I feel it was Cardui that cured me, and I recommend it as a splendid female tonic.

Don't allow yourself to become weak and run-down from womanly troubles. Take Cardui. It should surely help you, as it has so many thousands of other women in the past 40 years. Headache, backache, sidache, nervousness, sleeplessness, tired-out feeling, are all signs of womanly trouble. Other women get relief by taking Cardui. Why not you? All druggists.

JUNIOR CHAUTAUQUA TO BE BIGGER AND BETTER THIS YEAR

Kids' Circus Will Be One of the Big Features of This Season's Junior Chautauqua.

This will be the finest year the Junior Chautauqua has ever known. There are so many wonderful things planned for the girls and boys this year. One of the greatest of these will be the Kids' Circus.

There isn't a real boy, girl, man or woman living who isn't fond of a Circus, and here will be the greatest one that has ever come to your town, because it will be your Circus. It will be a Chautauqua Kids' Circus to be built and exhibited by all the boys and girls who have Chautauqua season tickets. The biggest hit ever invented—Menagerie of wild animals. Wonderful circus parade, big side show features, clowns, wild men, Indians, bands and the whole big circus works. Will exhibit under the Chautauqua tent.

The Junior Leader will be a circus girl too, and will help you to collect, contrive and compile the grandest circus performance ever. Indeed, this circus is so remarkable that it has long been worrying other showmen such as Barnham, Balleday, and the Ringtail Brothers.

The day before Chautauqua really opens you will have a chance to become acquainted with the Junior Leader at the Free Meeting to be held at the big tent. You do not need your ticket for that meeting, but you should be able to tell her that you are going to have one for the first real meeting, which will be held the morning Chautauqua opens.

At this free meeting, the Junior Leader will tell you all about the Kids' Circus, the Hike, the Pageant, and other interesting things which have been planned for you. She will tell you a story, or two, if you like; she will sing a new song for you, and will play games with you. You miss a lot when you miss the Free Meeting! Don't fail to be there and have all the boys and girls on your street and in your town home, too—Junior Chautauqua Herd.

DEHARDT WITHDRAWAL LOOKED FOR IN TEN DAYS BY FOLLOWERS OF POLITICS

The Lexington Herald says: Followers of politics in Kentucky are changing their attitude in respect to the gubernatorial race, based on a belief that Lieutenant-Colonel Henry H. Denhardt, of Bowling Green, will withdraw as an aspirant within the next ten days, according to authoritative sources. That Denhardt will withdraw is generally conceded among the "higher-ups," in the Democratic party, it became known last night. The general impression among the factions of both Governor James D. Black and Judge John J. Carroll, the other two candidates, seems to be that the Denhardt withdrawal has already been decided upon, but that the Bowling Green aspirant and his chief backers are not quite ready to "spring" the withdrawal.

Thus far Denhardt has not filed his notification papers with the Secretary of State, and this, and recent conferences between Denhardt aides and Governor Black, have added to the conviction in Frankfort that the retirement of the soldier-candidate is already agreed on.

EVANGELINE BOOTH TELLS HOME SERVICE FUNDS' NEEDS.

Evangeline Booth, commander of the Salvation Army in the United States, explaining the purpose of the campaign for $12,000,000 which will be conducted in Kentucky June 23 to 30, for the Salvation Army House Service Fund, said:

"The Salvation Army has been tolling on the upward trend for more than half a century, doing just what it did in France, all in the same spirit and manner, but you did not happen to hear of it, perhaps.

"The war depleted our forces and our finances at home. There must be not only a rehabilitation now, but we must rise to the new high-tide mark and equip ourselves to maintain here in the United States the contracts we were privileged to make on both sides of the sea because of the war."

RENEWED INDUSTRY IN NEEDED AND NOT MUCH CHARITY

Greatest Need in All the World Now Is Renewed Industrial Activity.

Washington, D. C., June 14.—The greatest need today in Europe, as in America, according to Government officials who have been closely in touch with world conditions, is not food or any form of charity but the resumption of industry. This point was strongly emphasized also by speakers at the recent Pan-American Convention held in this city. Many Government circles who are devoting special consideration to the human side of world affairs point out that the opportunity which America now has to promote industrial rehabilitation demands the placing of this country's own production.

The first step in such a program is the elimination of waste, both of materials and human effort for America is declared to be one of the most wasteful nations in the world. The argument used by the Training Service in promoting industrial training is that this new feature in manufacturing, produces a marked conservation of human effort as well as materials.

Production charts exhibited by the Service show a surprising difference in records made by typical workmen before and after taking training courses. They reveal a steady increase in output under the beneficial guidance of an instructor and an equally pronounced decline in the salvage value. This performance, coupled with the fact that training cuts in two the learning period, accounts for the large material benefit resulting from systematic training.

Leading manufacturers in this country have adopted the training program advocated by the Training Service as a direct practical means of preventing the waste and promoting readjustment now so much needed by American industries. The first step toward the rehabilitation of industries throughout the world is readjustment of industries at home, they say. The courses which the Training Service prepared are being instituted in a great variety of manufacturing and the demand for the assistance of the Services experts is also growing.

TIME IS THE TEST

The Testimony of Maysville People Stands the Test.

The test of time is what tells the tale. The public soon finds out when misrepresentations are made, and merit alone will stand the test of time. Maysville people appreciate merit, and many months ago local citizens publicly endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills; they do so still. Would a citizen make the statement which follows unless convinced that the article was just as represented? Below is testimony such as the sufferer from kidney ills is looking for.

Henry S. Gallenstein, blacksmith, 24 W. Third St., Maysville, says: "My kidneys were out of order and I had pains through my back. Doan's Kidney Pills put an entire stop to the pains and my kidneys became well." (Statement given January 9, 1912.)

RESULTS THAT REMAIN
Over four years later, or on November 14, 1916, Mr. Gallenstein said: "I haven't had any need of a kidney medicine since I last recommended Doan's Kidney Pills. The benefit they gave me has been permanent."

LOYD GEORGE PRAISES "ARMY"

Evangeline Booth, Commander of the Salvation Army in the United States, received the following letter from David Lloyd George:

"British Delegation, Paris, April 8, 1919.

"Dear Madam—I have very great pleasure in sending you this letter to say how highly I think of the great work which has been done by the Salvation Army amongst the Allied Armies in France and the other theaters of war. From all sides I hear the most glowing accounts of the way in which your people have added to the comfort and welfare of our soldiers. To me it has always been a great joy to think how much the sufferings and hardships endured by our troops in all parts of the world have been lessened by the self-sacrifice and devotion shown to them by that excellent organization, the Salvation Army. Yours faithfully,

"DAVID LLOYD GEORGE.

Folks of Dover Neighborhood Interested in Building Tobacco Warehouse in That Town.

The Mason County News: The meeting held at the townhall Saturday night, though not attended by as large crowd as expected, brought forth quite a few citizens of both town and county.

Owing to the intense heat the meeting was held on the outside. All present showed that the interests of this community was ablaze with their hearts and the idea of a looseleaf market was heartily approved by all present. The purpose of the meeting was to decide whether or not there was a possibility of getting the necessary support of the citizens to enable us to proceed with the work. This being assured a party was authorized to obtain further information regarding buyers, cost of erection, etc., and another meeting for Saturday night was suggested when reports could be heard regarding the progress made concerning questions yet to be settled before proper steps can be taken. As this information cannot be obtained within that time the meeting will not be held until next Wednesday night, June 17th.

All farmers, business men and citizens are requested to be present at this meeting as it will be one of importance for all.

NEW ADOPTION OF SCHOOL BOOKS MUST BE MADE

Court of Appeals Rules That Stanley Commission Did Not Follow Law in Making Adoptions.

Frankfort, Ky., June 14.—For "failure on the part of the commission to perform certain ministerial duties enjoined by statute, which are mandatory and so clearly defined that the very manner of their performance is prescribed," the Court of Appeals Friday held invalid the adoption of textbooks for the common schools by the Stanley commission, and affirmed the judgment of the Frankfort Circuit Court requiring the Governor to reconvene the commission, advertise for new bids and let the contracts all over again for furnishing textbooks during the next five years.

The opinion was delivered by Judge Settle, and was unanimous, save as to the right of Prof. E. B. Weathers, Jr., of Franklin, to bring the suit against the State Textbook Commission.

On this point the court stood three to three, and the judgment was affirmed by a divided bench.

By this narrow margin did Prof. Weathers stay in court, but once safely in there was no division on the question, after the facts were before the judges.

The division showed that there was no politics in the decision. Two Democrats and one Republican were on either side. Judges Settle, Clarke and Sampson held to the view that Prof. Weathers was a proper party to sue, and Judges Thomas, Hurt and Quin declared he did not have sufficient interest in the adoption to maintain his action.

Among other grounds cited by Judge Settle for sustaining his right was that the law gave cities the right to accept the State adoptions at the same price, and stated that this was for the purpose of encouraging uniformity in textbook adoptions throughout the State. For this reason he believed Prof. Weathers, as a citizen of Franklin, was interested in the adoption.

The court held that the law plainly specified that 50 per cent. of the books in use must be readopted at the same or less price, and if 50 per cent. are not offered at the same or less price the commission must advertise anew for bids.

The court said the commission has nothing to do with subjects, as they are prescribed by statute and the Board of Education.

It adopts books, and where the word subjects is used in the statute with reference to adoption it must be construed to mean books. The law uses the two rather indiscriminately.

Taking the figures presented in the brief for the commission, the court said, it plainly changed more than 50 per cent. of the books or prices. It contended that nineteen books, or 25.7 per cent., were readopted at the old price; eighteen, or 25.5 per cent., were readopted at higher price, and thirty-four, or 47.8 per cent., were new adoptions.

DROWNED BOY'S FATHER MAKES AFFIDAVIT FOR ARREST

Concord Man Held in $500 Bail Charged With Causing Death of Adams County Youth.

In regard to the sensational turn to the drowning of Clyde Edgington near Manchester last week, the West Union People's Defender says:

As a sensational sequel to the sad drowning of Clyde Edgington, 16-year old West Union boy who lost his life in a tragic manner in a deep hole of water in Brush Creek about seven o'clock last Sunday morning, James T. Belvin, aged 67 years, was arrested following the coroner's inquest Monday and is now in the county jail awaiting action by the grand jury on a charge of involuntary manslaughter. The affidavit in the case was filed with Mayor S. P. Robuck by Kilby Edgington, father of the unfortunate lad.

"From the testimony in this case, from what I can learn and view and gather, I would find that the deceased, Clyde E. Edgington, came to his death by drowning in the waters of Brush Creek, Adams county, Ohio, on June 8, 1919, from fear of bodily harm of threats made by one James Belvin."

Immediately following the inquest, Belvin was arrested and taken before Mayor Robuck, before whom he entered a plea of not guilty to a charge of manslaughter, waived an examination of witnesses and was bound over to the common pleas court. Mayor Robuck fixed his bond at $500, which the accused was unable to furnish and he was committed to the county jail.

LAST WEEK FOR GERMANS TO SIGN

Armistice Will End on June 21 and Enemy Must Before Then Sign.

Paris, June 14.—Saturday, June 21, apparently will be "der tag" for the Germans.

There was every indication today that within a week Germany's answer will be known—she either will accept or reject the revised peace treaty.

This was based on the assumption that the reply to the German counter-proposals will be submitted Monday, and that the enemy will be given five days to reach a decision.

This period also is expected to include the three days for renunciation of the armistice, provided in the original terms of that document. If the Germans do not accept the new conditions, the armistice would be declared at an end after the first two days, and the allies would be free to resume hostilities Saturday, the final day for rejection or acceptance.

The superior blockade council met today for final consideration of economic measures to be undertaken against Germany in event she refuses to sign.

The Big Five was completing consideration of the Rhine question and cleaning up minor details today. This body was understood to have decided military occupation of the Rhine districts shall be under control of civilian commissions, instituting probably the most important change in the treaty that will be conceded to the Germans.
